Who must get a foreign tourist to fill out an individual police sheet?

Verified: February 17, 2020 - Directorate of Legal and Administrative Information (Prime Minister)

Anyone who hires out tourist accommodation to a client of foreign nationality must have them fill out an individual police sheet .

It could be :

- of a hotel,*
- or from a holiday village or family home,*
- or of a residence or residential tourist village,*
- or furnished accommodation,*
- or a guest room*
- or a camping or caravan site (or other landscaped grounds).*

Foreign customers must complete and sign the form upon arrival.

Children under the age of 15 may appear on the card of an adult accompanying them.

The lessor (Gites Limousin) must keep the record for 6 months. They must deliver it, only at their request, to the police and gendarmerie services (automatic transmission is no longer compulsory since 2015).

A clause in the contract may authorise the rental company to fill in the individual policy sheet with the information obtained during the reservation so that the client only has to sign the sheet upon arrival.

Please note: if the client refuses to complete or sign the individual policy form, the lessor is entitled to refuse him the provision of tourist accommodation.
